Alumni Association

Fall 2007

President's Notes

I must tell you that for me, OPEN HOUSE 2007 was a lot of fun—not because I was there—but because you were there—or at least a lot of you were. I have attended many of the ALUMNI ASSOCIATION Open House events—but not from the vantage point of being part of the ALUMNI BOARD. This position does not give me any special powers and so far, I have not made any earth shaking decisions—we have a great group of Board Members who do that!

This year's Open House did give me the chance to “look” at the group of Colts in attendance and pause to think about the history and legacy we are all part of. Perhaps it was due to seeing the Class of 1957 sitting down front and thinking about how they must have felt being the first graduating class from the new AHS some 50 years ago. A lot of them still seem like kids! Their classic stories brought back great memories of my dad and their principal, James W. Martin. Contact Dr. John Young and David Snider for an instant replay!

It was an honor to introduce Mr. Adams and to hear how much this school means to him and to consider how optimistic he is about the future of AHS.

Presenting the Distinguished Colt Alumni honorees for 2007 was a privilege. The three are Tom DeFrank, '63, Bill Hughes, '48, and Dinah Dalton Menger, '77. Each has contributed in so many ways and we are proud to claim them as COLT ALUMNI. Read more about these 2007 DCA at www.ahscolts-alumni.org/awards.htm.

Mr. Webb—Mr. Webb—How often do you get a chance to introduce Mr. Webb? He so represents Arlington High School for many of us. Even for those COLTS claiming other principals, Mr. Webb has always been the prime model for a high school principal.

For me, membership in the AHS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION represents an opportunity for all of us to consider how very blessed and “lucky” we are that our paths crossed at AHS, guided by teachers that cared, and that even today—as Ex Colts—we can support and encourage the current students of ARLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL.

The AHS ALUMNI BOARD joins me in thanking you for your support. Please remember that our ability to continue awarding SCHOLARSHIPS, as well as other gifts and grants, is due to your Membership Renewals, Scholarship Gifts and Membership Gifts to graduates—friends, kids or grandkids!

All of this and more are explained on our new website—www.ahscolts-alumni.org.

Please visit and let us know what else you would like to see on the Alumni Website. We will continue to offer www.ahscolts.com as an open forum site for posting class announcements and contacting classmates. You are encouraged to use both sites.

COLTS FOREVER!

Distinguished Colt Alumni - 2007

President Gerald R. Ford called him “one of the finest journalists I have ever known—fair, trustworthy and professional.” Tom DeFrank, AHS Class of 1963, is Washington bureau chief of the New York Daily News where he directs coverage of the nation’s capital for the country’s fourth-largest metropolitan daily newspaper. His many awards include the 2007 White House Correspondents’ Association recognition for “his exclusive reporting as well as his ability to pack lively analysis into compact spaces.” In 2006, Tom won the Gerald R. Ford Prize for distinguished reporting on the Presidency.

Tom was Newsweek magazine’s senior White House correspondent for 25 years and has covered seven presidents from Richard Nixon to George W. Bush. He frequently appears on public affairs television programming and was a primary commentator for CNN during the memorial services for President Ford. His most recent book, Write It When I’m Gone: Remarkable Off-the-Record Conversations with Gerald R. Ford, will be released in November.

Tom graduated from Texas A&M where he was editor of the campus newspaper. After college, Tom was on active duty at the Pentagon from 1968 to 1970 as a public affairs officer. Nominated by ’63 classmate Jacque Deering Roll, Tom lives in Washington with his wife Melanie and son Andrew.

Tom DeFrank

Nominated by sister Helen Hughes Schrickel, ‘51, lifelong resident of Arlington, WILLIAM L. HUGHES, JR., CLASS OF 1948, retired from the Fort Worth law firm of Cantey & Hanger in 2001. He received the Blackstone Award from the Tarrant County Bar Association in 2000 and was named Trial Lawyer of the Year in 1993.

After Bill went to Arlington State College and the University of Texas, he served in the U.S. Army Military Police Corps. Following that, Bill got his law degree from the University of Texas.

In addition to his work for Cantey and Hanger, Bill served as Assistant District Attorney for Tarrant County, Assistant U.S. Attorney (Chief of Criminal Section) and Judge of the 38th District Court of Tarrant County. Bill has held leadership positions in professional offices, organizations and associations in Tarrant County and the state of Texas.

He is married to Barbara and they have one son Bill, Class of 1974.

Dinah and Bill at the Alumni Open House

When DINAH DALTON MENDER, CLASS OF 1977, returned to her alma mater to take over the choir program, the department had fallen on hard times. Only 50 students out of over 2000 were participating when she arrived 12 years ago. Today over 350 singers are daughters and sons of the white and green. Her choirs have not only performed in Texas but also in New York City, Miami, Ireland, Italy, and Scotland.

Dinah revived the AHS tradition of musical theater and has staged award winning performances of Music Man, Annie Get Your Gun, Oklahoma, Anything Goes, Li'l Abner, Fiddler on the Roof, and How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying.

After graduating from the University of Arizona,

Dinah taught school in that state before coming back to Texas. In 1998, she received the AWARE Foundation's Secondary Teacher of the Year award. Her choirs have won numerous awards and are consistent Sweepstakes winners in UIL choir competitions.

Since Dinah's mother Molly Lovell Dalton is an AHS ex, Dinah and her husband Chris, AHS Class of 1971, are raising a third generation of Colts: Claire, '02, Sam, '05, and Anna, Class of 2010.

Preserving Old AHS

Donations were received from the alumni listed below to underwrite a marker to be placed on the site of the original Arlington High School on Cooper Street near Abram. Special thanks to all of you for helping the Alumni Association partner with the Arlington Preservation Foundation and The University of Texas at Arlington to keep alive the memory of that grand old schoolhouse.

Standing at the memorial site are John Hall, Vice-President Finance and Campus Operations at UTA, Mac Martin, President of the AHS Alumni Association, Alumni Board member Paul Swartz, along with Nancy Bennett, President of the Arlington Preservation Foundation.

This fall, perhaps in time for Homecoming weekend, a memorial plaque and a Foundation insignia will be placed in a landscaped area on the corner of Cooper and Border streets. UTA plans to make this corner, on which the Homemaking Cottage once stood, a park area. It is already shaded with large trees and covered with grass. While driving by the old AHS, if you notice the memorial has been erected, you can find visitor parking by turning right off Cooper on the north side of the school (now the School of Social Work). In the far northeast corner of the lot, nearest Abram and Lampe Streets, there is ample visitor parking. From there it's a short walk to the memorial site.

A formal dedication will take place but no date has been set. Check the website ahscolts-alumni.org for the latest information.

The Bank Arlington—the bank of the AHS Alumni Association—joined the list of donors with one of the largest gifts for the marker. The folks at The Bank are Colts through and through. President and CEO Bill Allen eventually became a Colt By Choice to fit in with his Green and White family—wife and The Bank's Executive Vice-President Cathy Self Allen, '69, Brittany Worden Greco, '96, and Caleb Allen, '04. Senior Vice-President and CFO Jim Tipton, '70, has the same lineage with daughter Kim, '95, who now coaches at AHS, and son James, '04.

Although The Bank is located in Pantego near Braums, their new building at Bowen and Pleasant Ridge will be open by January 2008. The Bank, the only locally chartered bank in Arlington, will offer its building for community use. With that in mind, the design is inviting and invokes the feel of banks the way “they used to be.”

Scholars-2007

Katelyn Taylor and Amber Jones

The Alumni Association is proud to increase the total number of scholarships awarded to graduating seniors to 16. Beginning in 2003 with two scholars who received $600 each, the Association has given $15,200 in financial aid to AHS grads.

KATELYN TAYLOR started school at Fitzgerald Elementary before moving to the AHS side of town. After attending Dunn, Bailey, and AHS, she will enroll at Stephen F. Austin and will major in English and secondary education. Katelyn—in the second generation of her family to go to college—says the amazing thing about Arlington High is that she could always count on everyone's being there to help her succeed in life. Because of that great feeling she has she knows she will “always be able to come back to her high school home.”

set it apart. She will remember fondly her friends, the teachers and the extracurricular activities. Amber attended Johns and South Davis elementaries, Carter and Bailey Junior Highs before reaching AHS. She moves on to the University of North Texas as a third generation college student majoring in psychology.

GILBERT VASQUEZ, another second generation collegian, also plans to teach with his degree in education from the University of North Texas. Gilbert attended Key and Gunn. About AHS he remembers first and foremost the friends, Colt Football, and “of course, the Spirit, Pride and Tradition.”

ELEANOR KHONJE started school in England, went to junior high in Alabama, and finally made it to the halls of AHS. Another third generation university student, she will attend UTA on a five-year program working toward a Masters in Health Care Administration with a Bachelors in biology/pre-med. Eleanor describes her days at AHS in ways all alumni like to read: “Arlington High School honors individuality and encourages diversity. It has trained me as a leader and embraced me as an individual. I won't forget the administrators and counselors who care so much about their students, and I will remember the teachers who took me as I was and helped mold me into the person I am.”

Catching Up with some of our other scholars:

CASSONDRA YNGUANZO, '04, is majoring in criminal justice at TCU and will graduate in December 2008. She lives in Fort Worth and also works at Baker Street Pub...AMBER HARRIS, '05, attended UT Austin for two years and will finish at UTA, majoring in psychology and minoring in Spanish. She will graduate in spring 2009..

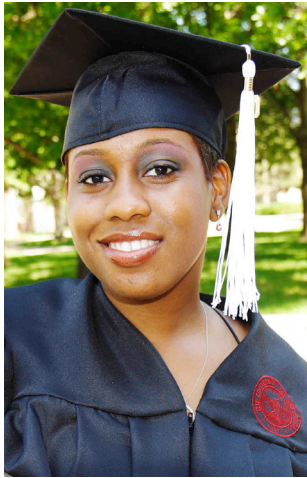

KRISTEN BATCHELOR, '06, attends Texas Tech, majoring in education, and will graduate in 2010...

ROBERT BROUGHTON, '06, completed his freshman year at Tarrant County College and has received a generous scholarship to Hardin Simmons University. He will graduate in 2010 with a major in political science and theater. Robert advises new grads “to stay focused because there are so many distractions and it's so easy to forget about school obligations.”...SUMMER SCHATZ, '06, is working to be accepted into the UT Austin School of Architecture for Interior Design. She says of her freshman year, “My first year at UT was incredible. I learned more than I ever thought I would, met my best friends, had so much fun. I could not have found a more perfect university for my personality in such an awesome city!” Summer will graduate in 2010.

Qiana Rollins,
AHS '03 and OU '07

QIANA ROLLINS, AHS Class of 2003, one of our initial scholarship recipients, is our first Alumni scholar to receive her degree. Qiana graduated from the University of Oklahoma in May 2007 where she earned a BA in psychology and now works as a Human Resources representative for Anadarko Petroleum in The Woodlands, Texas. Welcome back to Texas, Qiana, and Congratulations!

Open House-2007

Walking through a green and white balloon arch, alumni entered the cafeteria at the June 2 affair. Columns of balloons enlivened the whole room with our great school colors.

Special guest class—the first class to graduate from the Park Row campus—was the Class of 1957, celebrating its Golden Reunion.

With the Alumni Band behind him, Principal James Adams, in his State of the School talk, assured us the AHS tradition of quality in its faculty and its students continues. He particularly mentioned the International Baccalaureate diploma program which was implemented last fall and serves as one of two pilot programs for the district..

Clyde Godfrey, '55, Virginia Cooper Godfrey, '57, Donna Harrison Shaw, '57, Patsy Ellington Young, '58, Judy Biggers Wilson, '57, Elizabeth Bailey Banowsky, '57, Lynda Norwood, '57, and Mike Banowsky, CBC.

Before the Alumni Choir sang “You’ll Never Walk Alone,” Miss Ellis told the audience that most of us—at 18—didn’t know the meaning of dreams being tossed and blown. Then she added, “But now you do.”

The picture on the right of Linda Garner Gipson, '61, shows the emotional pull that song has for those who hear it and who agree with Miss Ellis that now we know what those lines mean. But we’re still here, still singing, still kicking!
