A LETTER TO MS. JENNIFER YOUNG

PRINCIPAL, ARLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

Jennifer Young

Dear Ms. Young,

Congratulations on being named principal of Arlington High School. We are aware of all you've done for AHS as assistant principal and with your new appointment we believe the future of AHS is brighter than ever. We feel sure that Colt Country is in good hands!

Thank you for attending our annual Open House. From singing the fight song...to cheering on the Alumni Band...to inducting our new Distinguished Colt Alumni...to being inspired by Miss Ellis and "You'll Never Walk Alone," I trust being there gave you a chance to see Colt enthusiasm at its best and to experience the loyalty this group feels for Arlington High School. We are pleased to welcome you as an honorary member of the AHS Alumni Association. We appreciate your support of our goals—namely, providing scholarships to graduating seniors and funding grants through the AISD Education Foundation for AHS teachers and the schools feeding into AHS.

We promise to help SPIRIT, PRIDE and TRADITION stay alive at AHS!

Again, please accept our congratulations and best wishes for your first term as principal of Arlington High School. We look forward to being part of your team.

COLTS FOREVER!

Mac Martin

Distinguished Colts - 2008

On Saturday, June 7, the AHS graduation ceremony marked the end of the JAMES ADAMS era at Arlington High School. After 38 years in the AISD and 15 as Colt-in-Chief, James is entering his well-deserved retirement.

James served as teacher, counselor and administrator at four AISD schools before taking the helm at AHS. His steady leadership has steered the students and staff through significant changes: the addition of the freshman class to campus; the growth of the student body to just under 3,000; the various building expansions to accommodate the additional 1,000 students.

During his tenure, some of the student achievements include: state semi-finals in football, regional finals in volleyball, state champion wrestlers, district champion cross country teams, area champions in baseball, bi-district champions in basketball and softball, regional finalists in boys and girls soccer, UIL One-Act Play State Championship, State level Academic Decathlon team, Sweepstakes Orchestra for 15 straight years, numerous all-state band, choir, and orchestra students. Mr. Adams says, "I've been fortunate to work with some really good kids, teachers and coaches!" His enthusiasm for all things green and white counterbalanced his rock-solid presence and earned the respect of all who worked with him and for him. As one former student remembers, "He was consistent. He would handle things the same way every day with everyone. You didn't have to guess with Mr. Adams." Another says, "I always felt safe knowing Mr. Adams was in charge. He was the type of man you wanted to impress and you wanted to make him proud. Arlington High School felt like a home to so many because Mr. Adams' compassion for his students and his staff made us feel like a family."

Both of his daughters graduated from AHS and the first diploma he ever handed out was to Melissa Adams. Both daughters—Melissa and Jennifer—teach in elementary schools in the AISD. James' wife Barbara—a premier teacher at Hill Elementary—joins James in retirement.

After a period of rapid changeover in the principal's office, James provided stability and a genuine love for Arlington High. He improved his faculty; initiated the International Baccalaureate program; remained unflappable in times of difficulty. He kept AHS open to transfer students as long as possible each year so the school could draw from students all over town who want to experience what it means to be a Colt. Often that has been as many as 700 students, who, like James, are Colts By Choice. He is an energetic, smart, visionary educator who nurtured Colt Spirit, Pride and Tradition. He is one reason it is still sweet to be in Colt Country.

Although JAMES DITTO was born in Fort Worth (when there was no hospital in town), he is a native son of Arlington where he started school at South Side and finished at AHS with the Class of 1948. After high school, James attended North Texas Agricultural College, one of the forerunners of UTA, before he continued his studies at the University of Texas at Austin. Following school, James joined the U.S. Army where he served in the military police. Stationed at Fort Bliss, he obtained the rank of First Lieutenant.

After receiving an electrical engineering degree from SMU, James worked for Rockwell International/Collins Radio as project engineer and program manager for projects in Alaska, Saudi Arabia, and the U.S.

An active supporter of both AHS and UTA, James has served on the AHS Alumni Association Board of Directors and has entrusted his children and grandchildren to AHS: Sons Steve, '74, and Douglas, '81, stepdaughters Judy Ramsey Snodgrass, '74, Jana Ramsey Lewis, '81, grandchildren James Ditto, '96, John Ditto, '99, Candice Ditto, '01, and Kelsey Snodgrass, '04.

In addition, James has served on the UTA Alumni Board, Development Board, Finance Committee and Athletic Council. He is past president of the Mid-Cities Technical Club at UTA. His other civic endeavors include working with the American Cancer Society by lobbying groups in Austin and Washington for research funds and smoke-free designations. He has served the city of Arlington on a planning committee which set landscaping standards for builders and developers. He serves as an elder of First Presbyterian Church where he has been a member for 65 years.

Even with all these commitments, he saves time for his favorite hobbies—golf and reading.

ALVIN, Class of 1965, and MARTHA WIGGINS MOSELEY, Class of 1966, started dating in high school and married while they were students at Tarrant County Junior College. Alvin joined the Coast Guard, serving four years, which was a temporary interruption in his continuing education. They both went to UTA and went on to careers—Alvin as a mechanical engineer and Martha as a nurse. Alvin has worked at Bell Helicopter for 34 years where he is now a senior engineering specialist working on the V22 helicopter. Martha spent most of her 17 years as a surgical nurse at Arlington Memorial Hospital with stints in Fort Worth and at Arlington Day Surgery.

Their connections with Arlington High School span a number of generations because of their families' long-term residency in Arlington. Martha's great-grandmother Collins (as in Collins Street) was an original settler of the Webb community with her farm where Highway 360 crosses Mayfield Road. Her grandmother Hannah Shaw owned and operated Jean's Café on Main Street (across from Rockfellers). Her mother Louine Lowe Wiggins was a member of the Class of 1942. Alvin has history here, too, where his dad laid most of the pipeline in the area. Alvin's work on those pipeline projects, even as a youngster, led to his driving a tractor while still in elementary school. With pride, Alvin admits he got his first ticket when he was 11!

The Moseleys reconnected to AHS when their sons, Rob, '88, and Andy, '91, attended. Since the boys were active in football and soccer, respectively, the Moseleys' alumni status shifted to that of boosters.

Since then, they have been actively involved in both their classes, helping to organize their classes' reunions and in maintaining connections. In 2005, they began serving on the AHS Alumni Board of Directors as Reunion Representatives charged with alerting classes to the existence of the Alumni Association and to encourage membership. As Jo McGovern says, "They have both spent many, many hours spreading the AHS Spirit."

They relinquished that directorship this year when they learned they will be leaving Arlington in December for a year's residency in New Burn, North Carolina where Alvin's work requires him to go. Although they eagerly anticipate life in a new community for a change, they know this is temporary and that returning home to their many family members and friends is on a not-too-distant horizon.

One plan for the summer is a trip to Dearborn, Michigan in their red, 1948 Ford F1 truck—a purchase they flew to Florida to retrieve a few years ago and then drove home to Arlington.

Good luck, Alvin and Martha, on the way to Dearborn and in your year away from home.

Alumni Scholars 2008

Brittneé

BRITTNEÉ KELLER will attend Prairie View A&M University this fall where she will major in computer science and civil engineering. She is in the second generation of her family to attend college. In the AISD, Brittneé went to Short Elementary, Lynn Hale Academy and Gunn JH, before reaching AHS. Once there Brittneé appreciated the “positive environment, the faculty, and all the opportunities to succeed and help others.” She is proud to be a “true Colt.” An unforgettable ingredient of her days at AHS was Mrs. Fougrousse’s English class—her favorite. It was a class she looked forward to every day because her teacher could always “bring a smile to my face.”

HANNAH CROSSNOE began her path to AHS at Duff Elementary and continued at Bailey JH. She will begin her college studies at Tarrant County College and plans to major in nutrition/dietetics. She is part of the third generation of her family to attend college. Hannah’s characterization of Arlington High centers around the “feeling of everyone at Arlington High being one big Colt family.” Her fondest memory will be leading the school in its Spirit, Pride, and Tradition as a Colt cheerleader.

SAMUEL TANG, like Brittneé, began school days in Arlington at Short Elementary, then headed for Dunn and Bailey. He is first generation in his family to attend college and will go to Boston to enroll at Emerson College where he will study writing, literature and publishing. Samuel’s memories of Arlington High center on the friends he has made. He values the diversity of AHS because so many different “types” of people and the various cultures make school “more interesting. I’ve learned so much at AHS—about other people and myself.”

ALA AHMAD, a second generation college student in her family, heads to Texas Christian University in Fort Worth this fall. She will major in political science and business, with an eye on law school. In addition to AHS, Ala attended Atherton Elementary. For Ala, Arlington High was all about tradition. The traditions “passed from class to class keep the alumni’s influence and spirit alive.” She credits two adults during her high school years with amazing support: Brenda Gilmore and James Adams.

Notable: Three ex-Colts—who happen to be siblings—joined forces to run in the Boston Marathon in April 2008. Each serves a different branch of the military which has kept them apart for over a year. U.S. Army Captain Jeannie Panton Deakyne, '93, Air Force Captain Brad Panton, '95, and Navy Lieutenant Dave Panton, '98 are stationed in Texas, Massachusetts, and California, respectively. In fact, Captain Deakyne, who has served two tours in Iraq, has returned to Arlington to teach ROTC at the University of Texas at Arlington. Former AHS art teacher and Colt By Choice Debbie Panton is the proud mom.

Dave, Jeannie, Brad on Race Day

Celebrity: Melissa Sperb Lawson, '94, won the sixth season of the reality show Nashville Star on August 4.

The Dedication

After four years of working together, we finally got the job done! On June 14, the Alumni Association, the Arlington Preservation Foundation, and the University of Texas at Arlington held a joint dedication of the marker honoring the location of the first Arlington High School at the corner of Cooper Street and UTA Blvd (formerly Border Street). The Foundation designed and forged the plaque, generous alumni from AHS paid for the plaque, and UTA placed it on the concrete pillar and landscaped the area. It is a lovely, shady spot in the midst of the city and the campus. Now no matter what the future holds for the remaining buildings of the old complex, a monument stands as a reminder that in 1922 the first Arlington High School was the “largest public education facility between Dallas and Fort Worth.”

With the marker in the foreground, a group of friends of AHS attend the dedication.
